

ELA 11: LITERARY STUDIES

BIG IDEAS: The exploration of text and story deepens our understanding of diverse, complex ideas about identity, others, and the world. People understand text differently depending on their worldviews and perspectives. Texts are socially, culturally, geographically, and historically constructed. Language shapes ideas and influences others. Questioning what we hear, read, and view contributes to our ability to be educated and engaged citizens.

COMPETENCIES:

Using oral, written, visual, and digital texts, students are expected individually and collaboratively to be able to: Comprehend and connect (reading, listening, viewing)

- Read for enjoyment and to achieve personal goals (Literacy Pro)
- Recognize and understand the role of story, narrative, and oral tradition in expressing First Peoples perspectives, values, beliefs, and points of view
- Recognize and understand the diversity within and across First Peoples societies, as represented in texts
- Understand the influence of land/place in First Peoples and other Canadian texts
- Access information for diverse purposes and from a variety of sources to inform writing
- Evaluate the relevance, accuracy, and reliability of texts
- Apply appropriate strategies in a variety of contexts to comprehend written, oral, visual, and multimodal texts, to guide inquiry, and to extend thinking
- Recognize and understand how different forms, formats, structures, and features of texts enhance and shape meaning and impact
- Think critically, creatively, and reflectively to explore ideas within, between, and beyond texts • Recognize and identify the role of personal, social, and cultural contexts, values, and perspectives in texts
